

Washington Lawyer

Legal Beat

From Washington Lawyer, June 2015

By David O'Boyle and Michael Smith

And the Award Goes to . . .
Bar Announces 2015 Honorees

The 16th Annual Youth Law Fair, which focused on racial profiling and youth interactions with law enforcement, will receive this year's Frederick B. Abramson Award. Hosted by the D.C. Bar Litigation Section and the D.C. Superior Court, the annual event brings together D.C.-area students with educators, attorneys, judges, members of law enforcement, and community leaders to learn about the justice system and to explore issues facing youth today.

—M.S.

Curtis Etherly, an executive with the Coca-Cola Company, engages students while serving as the Master of Ceremonies for the 2015 Youth Law Fair. This year's event, which focused on racial profiling and youth interactions with law enforcement, will receive the Frederick B. Abramson Award during the Bar's Celebration of Leadership.