

October 13, 2004

For information contact: Leah Gurowitz
202/ 879-1700

PRESS ADVISORY

D.C. Courts to Honor Community Leaders with CORO Awards Annual Ceremony to Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month

WHAT: CORO Awards Ceremony

WHERE: Jurors' Lounge
Moultrie Courthouse – 3rd Floor
500 Indiana Avenue, NW

WHEN: Friday, October 15th at 3:00pm

WHO: Chief Judge Annice Wagner, D.C. Court of Appeals
Chief Judge Rufus G. King, III, D.C. Superior Court

Each year the D.C. Courts hosts a CORO Awards Ceremony as a culmination of the Hispanic Heritage Month festivities. Coro, the Spanish word for choir, stands for Community, Outreach, Recognition and Opportunity. These awards are given in recognition of those whose outstanding service has enhanced the lives of Latinos in the District of Columbia. This year the awardees will be: John Machado (Legal Community Award), Calvary Bilingual Multicultural Center (Community Agency Award), William Agosto (Achievement Recognition Award), the Superior Court's Social Services Division's Intake Services Office (Community Outreach Award) and Matilde Springer (Alan Klein Award).

Hispanic music and food will be provided at a reception following the awards. The public is welcome to attend.

###