

February 25, 2008

For more information contact: Leah Gurowitz
202/ 879-1700

PRESS ADVISORY

WILLS OF FAMOUS WASHINGTONIANS TO GO ON DISPLAY

Last testaments of Frederick Douglass, several U.S. presidents and first ladies, and many more notable Washingtonians.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - History is examined best by looking through the eyes of those who lived it. The Wills Project is granting area residents an opportunity to do just that. The D.C. Superior Court will put the wills of thirteen influential Washingtonians on display and hold an opening reception on Thursday February 28, 2008. The event is sponsored by the Probate Division of the D.C. Superior Court and the D.C. Bar's Estates, Trusts, and Probate Law section.

WHAT: The Wills Project: An Exhibit of Thirteen Wills of Famous Washingtonians

WHERE: 515 5TH Street, Court Building A, Third Floor

WHEN: Thursday, February 28, 2008, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m.

WHO: Chief Judge King, D.C. Superior Court
Anne Meister, Register of Wills