

January 27, 2010

Contact: Leah Gurowitz
(202) 879-1700

** PRESS ADVISORY ****

D.C. COURTS STEP INTO BLACK HISTORY MONTH

In recognition of the significant role that Black Greek-letter fraternities and sororities have played in African American culture, the D.C. Courts will kick off their annual Black History Month celebration with a step show, "Stomping into Black History," and a living museum exhibit.

WHAT: Black History Month Kickoff Step Show & Living Museum

WHERE: Jurors' Lounge,
Moultrie Courthouse, 3rd Floor Atrium
500 Indiana Avenue, NW

WHEN: Friday, January 29, 2010 at 3pm

WHO: Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity
Zeta Phi Beta Sorority
Sigma Babies

...and a Living Museum with court employees in character as significant figures in African American History.

**###

Note: Cameras and recorders will be allowed into the courthouse for this event.