PRESS ADVISORY

Family Treatment Court to hold Graduation Friday, May 13

-- Nine mothers will graduate to lives without drugs and with their children --

WHAT: Family Treatment Court Recognition Ceremony

WHEN: Friday, May 13th 2011, 11: 00 AM- 1:00 PM

WHERE: Moultrie Courthouse, Hearing Room JM-8
500 Indiana Avenue, N.W.

WHO: Magistrate Judge Pamela Gray, Family Treatment Court judge

Program details:

- Family Treatment Court has a comprehensive substance abuse treatment program for mothers and female guardians of children who are the subject of a child neglect allegations. Those who participate stipulate to the allegations of neglect. The program is fifteen (15) months long.
- The first six months of treatment take place in a treatment facility in which the women reside along with up to four of their children, who are either ten or younger.
- The treatment facility provides on-site services as well as community-based services, including: substance abuse education and treatment, relapse prevention, parenting classes, counseling, and childcare.
- If the participants successfully complete the residential phase, they participate in a formal recognition ceremony and proceed to the community-based after care phase. It is this formal ceremony – the twelfth such ceremony – that will take place Friday, May 13th.

NOTE: Judges will be available for interviews. Mothers and children may also be available for interviews, with their permission. Cameras and recorders must be cleared in advance.
